Project Description

U.S. Embassy Beijing's Economic Section is looking for an intern to monitor, research, and analyze China's economic relations with (1) countries in Europe; and (2) countries in Africa. The intern will conduct open source research to develop weekly summaries of significant events in China-Europe and China-Africa economic relations. The intern will have the opportunity to draft policy papers in areas of interest, develop databases to track trade and investment, create country-specific fact sheets, and complete other written research documents. This internship is perfect for students interested in China's growing economic influence around the world.
